NOSTALGIA | Down the memory lane of men's hockey at the Olympics since 1928

India's glory days in hockey

Joe Williams
MUMBAI

When it comes to the Olympics, the Indian men's hockey team boasts a legacy of unparalleled success.

As the most triumphant team in the event's history, they have secured eight gold medals, one silver medal, and three bronze medals.

Their journey began in 1928 when the Indian team won their first Olympic gold, marking the start of an extraordinary era. From then until 1960, they dominated the Olympics, achieving an unprecedented six consecutive gold medals.

Their remarkable run included an astounding 30-game winning streak, starting from their debut in 1928 until the 1960 gold medal final, where they experienced their first defeat. The Indian men's hockey team has played 134 matches at the Olympics, winning 83 of them, the highest win record for any team in the sport's Olympic history. India also holds the unique distinction of winning the Olympics without conceding a single goal, accomplishing this feat twice, in 1928 and 1956.

India made their Olympic debut in 1928, with a series of victories over Austria (6-0), Belgium (9-0), Switzerland (5-0), and a 3-0 win against the Netherlands in the final, under the captaincy of Jaipal Singh Munda. In 1932, they defended their title with a record 11-1 win over Japan and a historic 24-1 victory against the United States, where Dhyhan Chand scored 8 goals and Roop Singh 10, still the largest margin in Olympic history.

India continued their dominance by winning their third consecutive gold in 1936 under Dhyhan Chand's captaincy, defeating Germany 8-1 in the final, the largest margin in an Olympic hockey final. World War II led to the cancellation of the 1940 and 1944 Olympics, temporarily halting India's reign.

In the 1948 Olympics, India won all their group matches and defeated Great Britain 4-0 in the final, a victory symbolically significant after gaining independence. They continued their golden streak in 1952 and 1956, with Balbir Singh Sr setting a record by scoring five goals in the 1952 final, and a 1-0 victory over Pakistan in 1956, sparking a legendary rivalry.

India added two more gold medals in 1964 and 1980. However, the team experienced a slump as the sport transitioned to astro turf.

Legend of Indian hockey

Dhanraj Pillay is the only player to have played in four Olympics (1992, 1996, 2000, and 2004), four World Cups (1990, 1994, 1998, and 2002), four Champions Trophies (1995, 1996, 2002, and 2003), and four Asian Games (1990, 1994, 1998, and 2002). India won the Asian Games (1998) and Asia Cup (2003) under his captaincy. He was also the highest goal scorer in the Bangkok Asian Games and was the only Indian player to figure in the World Eleven side during the 1994 World Cup at Sydney.

'Play fearless hockey'

Ashok Dhyanchand exhorts the Indian players to play without any pre-conceived notions

PTI
NEW DELHI

The Indian hockey team has been handed an unenviable draw at the Paris Olympics and the legendary Ashok Dhyanchand reckons that the players will have to play "fearlessly" and "without pre-conceived notions" to negotiate the challenge.

India had clinched a bronze medal at the Tokyo Olympics in 2021 under Manpreet Singh to break a nearly four-decade-long jinx. There are huge expectations from Harmanpreet and Co. to achieve success in Paris.

But India's performance over the last few months, especially against Australia and in the Pro League, has become the talking point as the team heads into the Games, commencing in less than a week's time.

Ashok, the son of the hockey wizard Dhyanchand, conceded that India will have its hands full, but added that if they are able to control their nerves at crucial junctures, they would be successful.

India have Australia, Belgium, Argentina, Ireland and New Zealand in their group. "They have always given us a tough fight. The pool is very tough. The team must play with a fresh mind. They are capable and they have the capability," said Ashok during a panel discussion on India's preparations for Paris Olympics on Friday.

India recently lost a five-Test series in Australia, while the European leg of the Pro League, which was billed as extremely crucial for Olympic preparations, too didn't go as planned with the team finishing seventh among nine par-tipating countries. "I hope they play fearlessly and with a fresh mind, otherwise definitely the pool is hard. Also, they need to control their nerves at those particular (crucial) times. Let the mind work according to the situation," was Ashok's advice to the Harmanpreet-led side.

"For the athletes, it should only be a match where they can sustain the pressure and not let it get the better of them... that we are playing against Belgium or Argentina or New Zealand or Australia," said Ashok, who was a member of the 1972 Munich Olympics bronze-winning side.

The legend also felt that the Paris Olympics would be the swansong for several players and it was an opportunity for them to bow out on a high from the sport.
