CM Dhami Extended His Congratulations And Best Wishes To Union Minister Of Environment And Forests During Their Meeting

Dehradun (The Hawk): Chief Minister Pushkar Singh Dhami met with Union Minister Union Minister Bhupender Yadav in New Delhi on Wednesday to congratulate him on once again being entrusted with the responsibility of the Ministry of Environment, Forest, and Climate Change. The Chief Ministre expressed confidence that under his capable leadership, the Ministry would achieve new milestones.

During the meeting, the Chief Minister in-formed the Union Envi-ronment and Forest Minister that the expansion work of Jolly Grant Airport is currently in progress. For this, 87.0815 hectares of land from the Forest Department needs to be trans-ferred. He mentioned that out of the total 96.2182 hectares of land around Jolly Grant needed for the airport's expansion, 87.0815 hectares belong to the Forest Department. He further stated that the Honorable High Court has already passed a decision in favor of the state government/forest department regarding this matter. Following this court decision, there should be no difficulty in transferring the 87.0815 hectares of Forest Department land to the Civil Department for the expansion of Jolly Grant Airport. The Chief Minister also informed the Union Minister that the tender process for operating flight services from Jolly Grant Airport to Kathmandu (Nepal) has been completed. There-fore, it is essential to expedite the process of granting Jolly Grant Air-port the status of an international airport. After the land acquisition and possession processes are completed, the Airports Authority of India (AAI) will start the expansion work of Jolly Grant Air-

During the meeting, the Chief Minister requested the Union Minister to approve the ongoing proposals for the transfer of forest land for non-forestry, projects in non-forestry projects in Uttarakhand. This is crucial for providing basic facilities to the general public in the mountainous public in the mountainous regions of the state, given Uttarakhand's unique geographical and strategic importance. He also emphasized the need for compensatory afforestation in the "notified degraded forest land" available in the state for these purposes.

The Chief Minister mentioned that Nainital has become significant not only from a tourism perspec-tive but also for religious and spiritual reasons. The district of Nainital sees a considerable increase in the number of devotees visiting the world-famous Baba Neem Karoli Maharaj's ashram, Shri Kainchi Dham. These devotees usually stay in Nainital or nearby ar-

To address the parking issues in Nainital to a large extent, it was proposed that land from the Defense Estate Department, located 2 km from Naini Lake with an area of 3 acres, be made available for parking. If this land is provided for parking, it will partially solve the parking problem in Nainital. Developing this site as a multi-story parking facility could accommodate around 1500-2000 vehicles.

Defense Minister Rajnath Singh assured Chief Minister Pushkar Singh Dhami of possible coopera-tion to the best extent feasible.
