1 out of 3 iron boats removed from barrage

Boat that got stuck at the Prakasam Barrage being pulled by a team on Friday in Vijayawada | PRASANT MADUGULA

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Vijayawada

IRRIGATION department officials and workers engaged in removing the three iron boats stuck at the 69th gate of the Prakasam Barrage experienced a breakthrough on Friday evening. The team led by Dharmadi Satyam managed to cut one of the boats and drag it away from the barrage. However, the boat has not yet reached the shore, and workers are using a traditional ropeand-pull method to bring it closer to Durga Ghat.

The 12-member team from Kakinada arrived in Vijayawada on Friday and inspected the trapped boats. They dived into the water, secured strong iron and steel wires to the boat, and used a large crane from Durga Ghat to create a gap between the three boats. After multiple attempts, the team finally separated one boat and dragged it some distance away from the

"We still need to bring the boat to shore, and there's a risk that it could sink. We must act quickly to pull it further," said Abbulu, the temple head.

SIT to examine complete Hema Committee report, record fresh statements

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Kochi

THE special investigation team (SIT) probing the allegations of sexual harassment in the Malayalam film industry will record the statements of those who had deposed before the Justice Hema Committee on issues they faced in the film field.

The move came following a directive from the Kerala High Court, asking the SIT to investigate the allegations after analysing the full version of the panel report.

The SIT recently held meetings in Kochi and Thiruvananthapuram to prepare a framework for probing the allegations made by persons in the film industry before the three-member Justice Hema Committee.

According to sources, in the SIT meetings held in Kochi and Thiruvananthapuram on Thursday and Friday, it was decided to examine the full version of the report and identify persons to be approached for recording their fresh statements as part of the probe. Recently, the Kerala High Court directed the state government to issue a full version of the report to the SIT.

More than 50 people had deposed before the committee during its hearing in Kochi and Thiruvananthapuram. Several actors and people working in the film field had given statements, revealing sexual offences. "Not all the witnesses have given statements regarding sexual advances they faced. We have formed a team to investigate the allegations raised in the report. The team will identify the witnesses and approach them to give a fresh statement. After analysing their fresh statement, a decision on registering cases will be made. We are looking to complete the statement recording procedure within two weeks," said a source.
