Delhi L-G orders probe into Kejriwal's poaching claims

Gaurav Vivek Bhatnagar
NEW DELHI

Just a day before Delhi Assembly results are to be announced, the political temperature again rose in the Capital on Friday as Lieutenant Governor V.K. Saxena, following on the demand from a BJP leader, directed a probe by the Anti Corruption Bureau against three Aam Aadmi Party leaders, including former CM and national convener Arvind Kejriwal, for alleging that the saffron party had offered Rs 15 crore each to 16 of their MLA candidates.

It was on Thursday that Kejriwal had alleged that BJP was trying to poach his party candidates ahead and that they had all received calls to the effect. "In the last two hours, 16 of our candidates have received calls that if they leave AAP and join their party, they will make them ministers and will give Rs. 15 crores each," he had said in a Kejriwal had also wondered why BJP was making these calls when various exit polls were predicting its win in the elections. "These fake surveys have been conducted with the sole purpose of pressuring some candidates. But not even one of our men will bend," he had said.

Subsequently, Delhi minister Mukesh Ahlawat, who is also the AAP candidate from Sultanpur Majra, had acknowledged having received a call in which he was offered Rs 15 crore to leave AAP and join the other party.

Reacting to the developments, AAP leader and Rajya Sabha MP Sanjay Singh had said, "this shows that BJP has accepted its defeat even before the results".

In view of the allegations, BJP general secretary Vishnu Mittal wrote a letter to the L-G demanding the registration of a First Information Report and a probe by the ACB or any other agency into the allegations levelled by the AAP leaders.

ACB barred entry to Kejriwal's home

New Delhi: Tensions ran high outside Arvind Kejriwal's residence on Friday as an Anti-Corruption Bureau (ACB) team, arriving to question the AAP chief over bribery allegations against the BJP, was denied entry. The incident unfolded just a day before the Delhi election results, following Lt Governor VK Saxena's directive for the ACB to investigate AAP's "Operation Lotus" accusations against the BJP.

AAP MP Sanjay Singh on Thursday alleged that the BJP had offered Rs 15 crore each to seven of the party's candidates to defect.

While refraining from naming them, Singh claimed that these candidates received calls from BJP leaders a day after polls.

Raj Cabinet minister accuses his government of snooping

Manish Godha
JAIPUR

Cabinet Minister Rajasthan's Bhajan Lal government Dr Kirori Lal Meena has accused his government of snooping him and tapping his phone.

In a social gathering in a village near Jaipur, Meena said, "CID is being deployed for me at every nook and corner, my telephone is being tapped as well."

The issue was taken over by the opposition Congress, who raised the issue in the legislative assembly and demanded the resignation of the CM Bhajan Lal Sharma.

Meena accused the government of failing to act on corruption issues he had raised earlier. He cited the arrest of 50 fake police officers and claimed that when he suggested the cancellation of Sub Inspector recruitment exams due to irregularities, the government ignored his request. "I had raised some cases of corruption, 50 fake police inspectors recruited in Sub Inspector recruitment held during the previous Congress government were arrested. When I said that this examination should be cancelled, the current government did not heed my advice and instead, similar actions are being taken as in the previous regime. Gehlot also tapped my phone and snooped me, but I do not bow down and break as I don't hesitate to tell the truth. "Expressing his disappointment, Meena said "I hoped that when the regime changes, the corrupt will be reined in, and they will be punished, but I am disappointed.

This serious phone tapping allegation has made the opposition more aggressive in the assembly.

There was a huge uproar in the assembly over the allegations of phone tapping of Minister Kirori Lal Meena. As soon as the assembly proceedings started on Friday, Leader of Opposition Tikaram Julie raised the issue and said that the phone of a cabinet minister is being tapped he is making allegations against the Chief Minister.
